Daly City, Colma Aliens Show Cooperative Spirit

"Aliens in Daly City and Colma are showing a wonderful spirit of cooperation with the United States government in the alien registration program," Armando Rodriguez, special registration representative at the Daly City postoffice, declared today.

"Approximately 400 blanks have been given out from this office," he stated. "More than 250 persons have already reported back here for finger-printing appointments."

Rodriguez explained that there had been virtually no dissatisfaction here with the registration requirements. Most of the foreign-born residents, he pointed out, come from countries where such registration is required as a matter of course from all citizens.

The majority of foreigners re[p]orting from this area are Italian, [s]aid, with a handful of Greek, S[p]anish and Japanese.

[R]odriguez, who understands Italia[n] and speaks French, Italian and [E]nglish, will be at the local post o[f]fice all of this week and [p]erhaps longer.

[A]ll aliens over fourteen years of ag[e] must be registered and fingerprinted before December 1. Alien children under fourteen must be registered by their parents or guardians.

The Alien Registration Act was one of the first measures taken by the Congress in the national defense program.

"Registration will not be harmful to law-abiding aliens," government authorities point out. "All records will be kept secret and confidential and will be made available only to such persons as may be designated with the a[p]

President Signs Selective Service Bill

President Franklin D. Roosevelt Monday afternoon signed the selective service bill and at the same time designated October 16 as the date upon which all men between the ages of 21 and 35 must register.

His signature climaxed congressional action whereby approximately 16,500,000 men between the ages of 21 and 35 must make themselves available for a year of compulsory military training.

The War department plans to call up approximately 400,000 about a month after registration. All married men will be deferred from the first draft call.

City Officials Study Problems Of Mobilization

With the passage of America's first peacetime draft measure last week in Washington, city officials here turned their attention for the moment to problems of national defense.

"In case of national emergency, Daly City's municipal government could be easily mobilized," Mayor John J. Fahey said this week. "The city would cooperate in every way possible if need arose."

Mayor Fahey is spending this week in San Diego, where phases of national defense will receive their share of attention at the League of California cities annual convention.

Arthur J. Bodien, superintendent of two of Daly City's most vital departments, the municipal water plant and the fire alarm system, gave a similar report.

"We're for strong national defense one hundred per cent," he told the press. "We're Americans and proud of doing things the American way. The water department and the fire alarm system are kept ready for service at all times.

Meanwhile Chief James G. Rearlon of the Daly City police department explained that local po[l]ice too, were in favor of every protective measure needed in the preservation of democracy in the United States.

"Police are trained to give cool and expert aid in emergencies of every nature," he said. "We favor the taking of strong measures to defend this hemisphere and we particularly favor the preservation of peace and order at home in Daly City."

"In Either Case" Be Sure You're Eligible To Vote

Only seven days remain to register to vote at the presidential election in November.

The Great Register will close on September 26, and persons who have failed to register by that time will not have an opportunity to cast a ballot.

If a person has never registered or if he did not vote at either the August or November election of 1938, or if he has moved, he must register by November 26.

Failure to vote in the recent August election will not cause a previously registered citizen to lose his standing.

Registration may be made at the office of City Clerk B. C. Ross on the ground floor of the city hall, 75 Wellington avenue. Hours are 9-12 and 1-5 on week-days and 9-12 on Saturdays.

Registration may also be made

Civic Leaders Urge Citizens To Study Defense Program

Daly City has joined the entire State in observing Defend America Week. A program to emphasize the obligations and meaning of America's defense program begins today with the publication of The Daly City Record's 16-page "Red, White and Blue" edition.

By proclamation of Governor Olson this is California's Defend America Week. Purpose of the state and local observance is to concentrate public attention and thought upon the measures recently adopted by Congress for arming the nation and training the citizens for defense.

All city department heads this week outlined Daly City's place in the national defense program, local businessmen cooperated in bringing the story of "Defend America" to the public and The Daly City Record today presents a comprehensive and detailed series of stories on both the United States Army and the national defense measures.

The Record joins with civic leaders and government agencies in urging that Daly City realize three major objectives:

1. Build up a recruiting list in Daly City to contribute to the standing army of qualified men to serve the country.

2. Acquaint all civilians with the defense program so that they may cooperate when called upon but at all times refrain from war hysteria.

3. Assist the Federal government in its present program of alien registration in order to protect loyal non-citizens from suspicions of un-American attitudes and activities.

First Free Municipal Concert Set For Sept. 26

Irving Berlin, Schubert and Victor Herbert are only a few of the beloved composers whose music will fill the Jefferson Union high school auditorium next Thursday evening, September 26.

In the first of a series of free municipal concerts, the Daly City band has selected a varied program that should prove a real treat for local music lovers.

The concert will begin at 8 p. m. with Bandmaster George E. Brenner conducting the forty-piece organization. One of Brenner's own marches, "The Pacific Pageant," written in honor of the Golden Gate International Expo-

MEETING NEAR RIOT

Heated Argument Flares At So. End Streets Session

Personal antagonisms flared at Friday night's South End streets meeting as property owners in the district were informed that the $253,000 WPA streets improvment project will cost from $11,000 to $13,000 more than previously estimated.

A packed council chamber heard City Engineer Robert Klassen explain that assessments may rise as much as 50 per cent, ranging from $5.10 a front foot to $6.60 a front foot, instead of $3.40 to $4.40 as previously estimated.

W. D. Davis, civil engineer engaged by the property owners to make an impartial survey, reported that original specifications for the project failed to provide sufficient materials and did not take into consideration the necessity of adding another two inches of base to the paving.

The original contract was drawn up by former City Engineer Julius Castelan, who was also present at the meeting.

City Attorney Rudolph Rapsey explained that it was this failure to include proper quantities of sand, brick, fittings, cement and other necessities, coupled with high equipment rental, which was responsible for the increased cost.

The meeting was held under the sponsorship of a self-constituted committee of five property owners who began their own investigation of the project several months ago when they were told by the present engineer, Robert Klassen, that he found serious deficiencies in the original plans.

Klassen submitted his own figures to another engineer, R. C. R. Morser, who found the same deficiencies. Meanwhile, the property owners committee engaged their own engineer, W. D. Davis, to check the project.

Friday evening Davis reported that his figures were substantially the same as Klassen's. All three estimates varied by only 2 per cent.

A barrage of verbal blows was exchanged by City Attorney Rap-

County-Wide School Holiday Set For Friday

Daly City grammar and high school students today enthusiastically greeted the announcement that they will get a half-holiday from classes Friday.

Throughout the entire county, schools have declared a holiday in order to permit pupils to see and participate in the annual San Mateo Fiesta, at Bay Meadows.

A special student admission rate of 10 cents has been set by the fiesta officials, with 5,000 free seats in the grandstand where students may witness a full program of special events. The school entertainment will feature over 2,000 students from all schools in the county. In the choral group alone, 1,500 youngsters will sing.

R. L. Crane, superintendent, said today that the Jefferson school district, representing seven grammar schools, will participate in the choral group.

"We expect our students to be one of the best groups included in the program," stated Crane.

Harold Lang Has "Swan Lake" Solo

When the San Francisco Opera ballet presents the famous "Swan Lake" in War Memorial Opera house, September 27, Daly City will be represented in its company. Harold Lang, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alois N. Lang, 14 Alp street, will dance a solo "Mazurka" in the ballet.

Lew Christensen, recognized as America's foremost premiere male dancer, has come to San Francisco to dance the role of Seigfried in the ballet, which is being presented under the auspices of the Tschaikowsky Centennial committee.

This is the first time the complete "Swan Lake" ballet has been presented in America.

Opposite Christensen in the roles of Odile and Odette will be Janet Reed, known throughout the country as the "Lithesome Reed of the Pacific Coast," and Jacqueline Martin.

Lang, a talented male dancer, also appeared in the ballet pro-

Three Cars Burn In Spectacular Top Of Hill Smash

Flames leaped twenty feet into the air at midnight last Tuesday as a blazing inferno of three smashed cars at the top of the hill lighted up Mission street for blocks.

Lying unconscious in one of the blazing vehicles, with both doors jammed, was a honeymoon couple, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Ross of Hoquiam, Washington. They were saved from cremation only by moments.

Daly City's most spectacular automobile accident in years happened with startling swiftness. A stolen car, driven by Harry Traylor, twenty-one-year-old Burlingame Alleys pin setter, raced up Mission street through the fog from San Francisco. Whining around the curve at the top of the hill at an estimated speed of 80

Council Awards Water Plant Contract

Contracts for a new $3,000 40-horsepower pump and $2,000 switchboard for the Daly City municipal water plant were awarded at last Tuesday night's council meeting at the city hall.

Arthur J. Bodien, water superintendent, explained that the old equipment has been in use for many years and has become inadequate to serve the rapidly growing list of water consumers.

Work on the switchboard installation at the pump house, at Citrus and Niantic avenues, will

Colma Parish To Raise Funds For New Building

Hoop skirts and Civil war uniforms were in vogue when a tiny group of Catholic pioneers first built Holy Angels church in Colma. The year was 1865.

For nearly a century the little building has been in constant use. With the congregation now grown to many times its original proportions, plans were laid this week for the building of a new church.

On October 26, members of the Colma parish will gather at a grand entertainment at Colombo hall to start the ball rolling for a building fund. The new edifice will be erected in the vacant lot next to the parish hall, according to Reverend Father James Sorasio, pastor.

The initial entertainment on October 26 will be a traditional country fair, with music, dancing and games of skill to entertain the hundreds of visitors expected to attend the festivities.

The program will include dramatic sketches by local performers under the direction of Miss Mary Belli. A number of songs and music featuring a group of young musicians will be presented under the direction of Dante P. Lembi, Jefferson Union high school instructor and maestro of the famous "Indians of Rhythm."

1941 Buick Hits New High In Popularity

With a larger number of orders taken than ever before so soon after the introduction of new Buick models, the Buick for 1941, first shown here last week by M. J. Soldavini, Belli Motor company, local Buick dealer, has quickly established a new high in popularity.

The record reception of the new models was, in reality, expected, Soldavini stated. The Buick engineers made extraordinary preparations with the new Buick to mark the thirty-seventh year of Buick manufacture, following the biggest sales year in the company's history.

Among outstanding developments in the new cars is the improved Dynaflash engine, which the Buick engineers term "Fireball" to describe its method of exploding the compressed gas charge in the cylinders. With this design, Buick engines are able to use high compression without detonation and obtain maximum performance and economy from a given amount of fuel.

Sweeping changes in styling are in effect on all models, with the Series 40 Special and Series 60 Century cars presenting an entirely new motif in streamline design.

From the side, this new body type looks like an airfoil section. The solid steel roof flows in a single, unbroken line from the windshield to the rear bumper.

Altogether, there are more than 100 new advancements and detailed changes in the new 1941 Buicks.

sey and Castelan. At the present time, Rapsey is fighting a suit in Redwood City which was filed by Castelan against the city council. If successful, the suit will cost the property owners another $5,000 which Castelan claims is owing him for services on the project.

The WPA South End streets job has been involved in difficulties since it was started here in January. Suffering determined opposition from the Associated General Contractors of America, it was only by the united effort of the city council, the city attorney and private individuals that the job was kept going. Two injunction suits were defeated in Redwood City and a threatened pull-out by WPA averted only at the last moment.

At the present time it is estimated that although approximately 29 per cent of the labor is consumed, the job is only 15 or 20 per cent complete.

The meeting closed with the appointment of several additional members, who volunteered from the audience to serve on the property owners committee. They include F. Kahle, J. Dolan, W. Lagomarsino, J. Lazarini, R. Bertetta, J. Masini and C. Cattori.

Original members of the committee are Joseph Sarto, Frank Garibaldi, A. J. Gaggero, P. Benassini and M. J. Soldavini.

Bandmaster Brenner Takes Bow At Fair

George E. Brenner took a bow on Treasure Island Sunday.

One of Brenner's own original compositions "The Pacific Pageant" was played by Ralph Murray's famous name band in their Sunday afternoon concert at the California colosseum.

Thousands of Fair visitors applauded the Daly City bandmaster as he was introduced following the rendition of his march.

Brenner has composed several pieces. Besides the thrilling strains of "The Pacific Pageant," the Daly City band often plays his "Gateway to the Peninsula," another favorite.

Cavagnaro To Be Mayor For Week

Daly City has a new mayor this week. Councilman Edmund Cavagnaro was appointed on Saturday to take over the reins of office during the absence of Mayor John J. Fahey.

Mayor Fahey is attending the convention of the League of California Cities in San Diego, September 16-19. He expects to return home Saturday, in time for the next council meeting September 23. Mrs. Fahey is accompanying him.

This year's annual State convention has attracted hundreds of city officials from throughout California. Of particular interest to Mayor Fahey will be discussions by various municipal experts of city tax and insurance problems.

AS surely as the new Buick FIREBALL* straight-eight engine sets the performance pace for the coming season, the graceful silhouette of the new Buick SPECIAL and CENTURY cuts the automotive style pattern for another half decade.

The reason is not alone the grace of its Buick-created lines, nor the appearance of solid substance in action that gives this honey the look of a speedster straining at its leash.

It is the practical quality of great room enclosed in sleek and flowing lines—more room for legs, for elbows, for heads, more room for entrance and more room for carrying luggage —that makes this the silhouette the cars of the future will seek to achieve.

Why wait for that—when in this Buick you travel in a car that, like time and tide, obviously isn't waiting for any man?

TWO COLMA PEOPLE RECEIVE AWARDS IN ALBERS CONTEST

Two Colma people were very happy last week when the Albers Brothers Milling company presented Mrs. H. Ryggen the grand prize of their weekly contest, a beautiful 1941 radio-phonograph. Guido Casentini, proprietor of the Jefferson Market, and Mrs. Ryggen's grocer, was presented with a check for $100.00 for having a winner in his territory.

Mrs. Ryggen's winning entry told why she saved the coupons in Albers Corn Flakes. In less than 25 words, Mrs. Ryggen "hit the nail on the head," taking first prize out of thousands of entries from Western housewives.

R. S. Deering, who presented the prizes for Albers Corn Flakes, announced that a new weekly contest was under way, and will run until October 19. Deering urged local women to participate for the many prizes offered each week. The grand prize is a $189.50 Bendix home laundry. The new contest will be sponsored by Albers Carnation Oats.

Fred Witborn, Daly City, and Maggie Bullock, Seattle, Washington, were recently issued a marriage license in Reno, Nevada.

This Little Boy Went Visiting - - -

Little Jack Kusber, six-year-old son of Police Officer Joe Kusber, went visiting this summer and took all his clothes with him.

But when Jack returned home again this week, he didn't have any clothes left and even his suitcase was gone.

Escaped victim of a roaring fire which swept through his relatives' home at Redwood Estates, last Wednesday, Jack was lucky to be alive at all.

Neighbors said the fire apparently started in the kitchen and raced through the house so rapidly that it might have been an explosion.

The house was completely razed, with damage estimated at $8300, largely from the destruction of valuable antique furniture.

Jack, usually asleep at that time of day in a room adjoining the kitchen, was playing outside when the fire occurred.

Jack's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kusber, make their home at 60 Werner avenue. Jack is a student at Jefferson elementary school this year.

Tickets On Sale For Officers' Ball

Several thousand tickets to the twelfth annual Peninsula Peace Officers association ball to be held at Bay Meadows, September 28, have already been distributed, it was learned today.

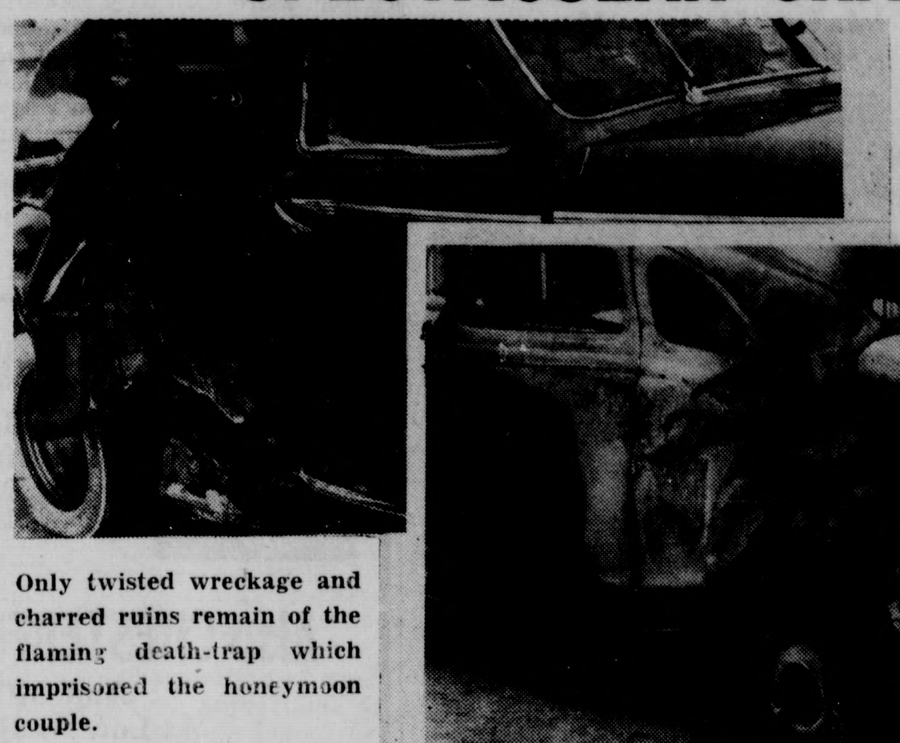

"This is going to be a real occasion," said A. L. Hilton, first vice-president of the association and Daly City police lieutenant, today. "Tickets are selling like hot-cakes and a record crowd is expected."

Hilton pointed out that the tickets are being handled exclusively by the various police departments and that no outside agency has been employed.

All proceeds of the ball will go to the widows and orphans fund of the association.

Johnny Dell's orchestra has been engaged to play and there will be both modern and "old-time" dancing. On the main floor of the Bay Meadows clubhouse, those who prefer up-to-the-minute swing and smooth dancing will hold forth. In an adjoining hall, dancers may go through the steps of dances which were popular many years ago—to music provided by an "old-timers" orchestra.

SPECTACULAR CRASH

To the left are the remains of the stolen Buick which cut a wide swath of fire and destruction at the top of the hill last Tuesday.

Only twisted wreckage and charred ruins remain of the flaming death-trap which imprisoned the honeymoon couple.

Shown above are two of the three cars which were smashed and burned at midnight last Tuesday. Three persons were injured in one of the most spectacular wrecks Daly City has seen in years.

Three Cars Burn In Top Of Hill Smash

miles an hour, the car slipped on the street car tracks, failed to take the curve and crashed into the Ross car which was parked in front of McGraw's Pharmacy.

As the Ross vehicle burst into flames, the stolen car hurled across the sidewalk, dragged the Ross car with it about 75 feet and smashed into the third car, which was parked near the Relish Bakery. All three were blazing twisted ruins as Daly City police and firemen sped to the scene of the holocaust.

Meanwhile spectators had rushed to the Ross car, broken in the glass and pulled Mr. and Mrs. Ross from the flaming death-trap. N. McCleod, James Crudo and Jefferson Martin helped remove the unconscious victims to the sidewalk, while Police Sergeant W. W. Sunderland and Officer A. J. Dalton rescued the Traylor youth from the burning wreck. The third car, belonging to Ernest Collinge, 22 Los Olivos, was unoccupied at the time of the accident.

Quick and heroic action by both Daly City police and the fire department averted further disaster. The three injured occupants of the cars were rushed to the Villa sanitarium by a B and G ambulance. Companies No. 1, 2, 3 and 4 brought all their fire-fighting and first-aid equipment into play and soon had the flames extinguished. Sergeant Sunderland was given first-aid treatment for a cut on his hand, incurred breaking the glass on the car door.

Warshawski's Dry Goods window was shattered by flying debris from the collision.

At Villa sanitarium today it was reported that Mr. and Mrs. Ross were in good condition. Ross suffered first and second degree burns of the right leg from the foot to the knee, his right shoe having been burned off when he was trapped in his car. He also suffered burns of the left foot and concussion. His wife incurred scalp wounds and burns on the hand.

Young Traylor received numerous cuts and bruises, a broken rib, scalp wounds and a dislocated shoulder. He was held to answer to superior court by San Francisco police on a charge of automobile theft. Police claim that the vehicle Traylor was driving belongs to G. L. Kilpatrick, 255 Shotwell street and was stolen from the emergency entrance of St. Luke's hospital at 11:45 p. m. Tuesday.

Volunteers Wanted—

The Red Cross workshop of San Mateo county today issued a plea for volunteer workers to aid in completing a quota of 17,000 surgical dressings for England immediately.

The workshop declared that materials from San Mateo county, as well as elsewhere in the United States, are actually getting through to England to aid in relief of suffering there.

Friday the party went to Treasure Island, saw the exhibits, and attended the major shows. On leaving for home, Mary Ann and Charlene told Captain Winter they had the best time of their lives.

A large group of friends and their children gathered for the occasion to wish Mary Margaret and Anne Marie Kennedy happy birthday. The little girls were nine and six years old respectively.

The tables were set on the lawn and made a pretty picture with their clever decorations in pastel shades.

After the children enjoyed their refreshments, games were played. The parents were served an Italian dinner.

Daly City guests included Mr. and Mrs. Roy Thomson and Lita Jean Nichols; Mrs. Lorraine Wall and children, Audrey and Bobby; Mr. and Mrs. John Hume and daughters, Jacqueline and Yvonne; Mrs. Edna Petersen and son, Allen; Mrs. Eleanor MacDonald and son, Kenneth; Mr. and Mrs. John Sullivan and children, Sheila and Michael sition, will be heard on the program.

Recognized as one of the finest non-professional bands in California, the Daly City band has gained a wide reputation for itself the past summer.

Although the local musicians have appeared at many Bay area events recently, next Thursday's concert will mark the first time in many months that Daly City has had an opportunity to hear a complete program at home.

On Sunday the Daly City band marched on Treasure Island in the gala celebration of San Francisco Day at the Fair. Winning a great deal of applause, they further substantiated their record for fine musical performance.

Olivet Advances In Softball League Contest

Olivet Memorial Park Friday evening gained a victory which gave them a tie with Granger and Martin for the second-half championship in the Burlingame Softball League.

Olivet scored 11 runs in the first inning of its final game against Lomita Park Firemen and needed all of them, because the Firemen eventually wound-up only three runs behind. Final score was 14-11 and put Olivet in line for the one-game playoff with Granger and Martin on Monday evening. Winner will play E. H. Edwards company for the league championship.

Olivet had a race-track experience in the first inning, getting five hits, four walks, six errors and 11 runs off two pitchers—Doug Johnson and Heinie Baccala.

Johnson retired to first, following the lines of Bogle strategy, after giving up four runs, including a homer, on three hits, a walk and two errors by teammates. He left with one man on base. Baccala issued two more hits, his mates made four more errors and he walked three batters in that frame.

With the opening of the second inning Bogle marched to the mound, sent Baccala behind the batter and proceeded to check the Olivets surprisingly from there on. He gave only three hits and three runs in five innings.

Merchants Win Hard-Fought Game

Daly City Merchants came through at the last moment Sunday to win a hard-fought game on the Jefferson diamond with Alvin Josephs. The score: 5-4.

Up to the ninth inning the score stood 4-3 in favor of the opposition. With one out and a man on first, the Merchants executed a swift play. The man on first stole to second; the catcher threw the ball away and the Merchants scored. A long fly brought the other run in. Ed Cavagnaro umpired.

Grid Ace Learns About Socks

Most of the 499,200,000 men's socks in the nation's annual laundry bundle suffer from being jerked onto the foot, according to professional launderers. "It takes skill, not football muscles," Jo Readinger advises Ambrose Schindler, University of Southern California backfield ace.

Olivet Wallops Broadway Team

Spectators, and most of the players, had more fun than a picnic could provide as Olivet Memorial Park softies walloped Broadway Merchants, 15 to 4, last Wednesday night to move at least temporarily into second place in Burlingame Softball league.

Broadway made errors all over the place last Wednesday night, so many that it became difficult to determine what was an error and what wasn't.

King Shelsta held Broadway hitless and scoreless until the fourth inning when two runs crossed the plate on an error and hits by Bobby Morrow, Loren Gaylord and Ed Stephens. Another trickled in in the fifth when Charlie Davis reached first on an error, which allowed Manuel Bento, who had walked, to score.

Final run for Broadway came in the seventh on walks issued to Bento, Mike Aitieri and Davis and Morrow's infield out.

Olivet chased two runs across in the first when Sam Lucia walked and Norbert Pfeifer hit a high, deep fly to right center. Bob Stephens got to it after a long run but couldn't hold on to the ball. Five runs scored in the second on two hits and five errors. Four more crossed the plate in the fourth on three hits and three errors; another trip in the sixth on three hits, a sacrifice and an error; another in the seventh on a walk and a couple more errors.

Hanson Leads Field In Golf

Stringing together eight birdies, Einar Hanson shot a five-under-par 65 Sunday to take a two-stroke lead over his nearest rivals for medalist honors in the seventh annual San Mateo county golf championship at San Mateo municipal course.

Hanson's 65 was the lowest qualifying score ever made in the county tournament and appeared safe as medal figure.

Over the week-end 158 golfers turned in qualifying scores and 31 of them had 76 or better. Qualifying will continue through today and Acting Pro Angelo Bonino, the 1939 champion, predicted there will be others low enough to fill out the championship flight.

Hanson had birdies on the first, third, fifth, seventh and ninth going out and on the 12th, 13th, 14th on the way home.

He went over par figures on the fourth, sixth and 16th.

Jeff Indians To Meet Piedmont

Football makes its official debut for Jefferson Union high school, Friday, when the Jefferson Indians meet Piedmont, at Piedmont, in the first practice game of the season.

The Indians owe the Piedmont huskies a stiff battle. (Jeff's lettermen haven't forgotten that they were trounced 25-0 last season.)

Coach Louis Tsoutsouvas said today that he hopes the boys make a better showing than last time.

Friday's game, although only a practice encounter, will test the metal of several new and untried performers. High school football fans will follow the game with keen interest as it will show how the team is shaping up and what may be expected in the first PAL league game, October 11, when San Jose travels to Jefferson.

Starting lineup at the Piedmont game will include the following Jeff men:

Champions Gather For 1940 Links Golf League Play

All the best golfers in Northern California will gather, Sunday, at the Sonoma Golf and Country club for the 1940 Public Links Golf League championship.

Champions from far and near—including Daly City's own famed Einar Hanson—will execute their most brilliant playing for a crowded field. To be determined are:

1. The California Public Links Champion at 36 holes medal play. Frank Toronto, Sacramento, defending champion; Al Gilleran, Harding Park, runner-up.

2. The Northern California Eight-Man Team Champion to be played off between the teams of Harding and Lincoln Park, winners of their respective divisions.

3. The Driving Champion of the League (best average of three drives). George Gnau, Harding Park, defending long driver.

Hanson, who recently made an enviable record for himself at the National Public Links tournament at Detroit, is rated on of the favorites in the Sonoma event. His spectacular, long drives are expected to give him top rating in the driving championship.

In addition to trophies and prizes, the golfers and their friends will enjoy picnic facilities, swimming and bike riding, according to Al Crane and George Gnau, chairman. Local golfers will remember that Gnau is also a former Daly City golfing star.

No. California Deer Season Opens

Local sportsmen are oiling up their guns for the Northern California deer season, which opened Monday.

This fall holds prospects of some of the finest hunting in years, the Forest Service reports. Fawn crops over the past few years have been exceptionally good. In most localities bucks are in splendid condition.

Many big bucks have been seen by rangers in the high country of the Sierra, the northern Coast range and the Cascade region, particularly in the Modoc forest where the largest herds of Rocky Mountain mule deer are found.

The woods are exceptionally dry this fall, and all hunters are cautioned to take special precautions to avoid the outbreak of man-caused forest fires.

Sta... Marshals Re...anized For N... Defe...

Chief A... Daly ...re depa... nou... today that the f... mars... system thro... state o... alifornia is ...com-pletely reorganized i... ests of ...tional defense.

"The State fire marshal has reorg... all the deputy marshals in ...nia," Chesney reported. From now on, only bona fide chi... of established companies will receive a deputy marshal badge."

New pictures of all chiefs and oaths of allegiance were required by the State fire system in its first reorganization in eighteen years.

Special care is being taken in the training and mobilization of fire units for national defense. The present fire program resolves itself into three major objectives:

1. The rigid investigation of fires which might be the result of sabotage and the putting into effect of all possible precautions to prevent such fires.

2. The fostering of major disaster plans in all cities, large and small, with a special view of preparedness for the fire risks incident to modern war. These plans include as a major objective the strengthening of the man power of fire departments, should the emergency arise, without delay.

3. The procurement of additional fire equipment to prepare for greater emergencies than those presented by the fire hazard normally present at all times.

Material has been released from the Division of Fire Safety for the dissemination of information relative to the protection of industrial plants against sabotage by arson and the preservation of evidence following fires of a suspicious nature.

"It is needless to ask loyal American members of the Fire Service to join in preparing for National Defense," the state fire marshal said today. "The time has come for action. Without question each community must provide its own protection. The provision of war-time fire protection is squarely before each fire department."

Daly City Zooms Ahead In Building

Instead of lapsing into the customary summer slump, building in Daly City zoomed sharply upward during the month of August, according to Arthur J. Bodien, chief building inspector.

Building permits here totalled $47,750 during the past month, Bodien reported. Five new homes, two alterations, one apartment house and one school building were listed.

Largest item during the month was the application for a permit for the new $25,000 industrial arts building at Jefferson Union high school.

Throughout Northern California as a whole, building gains were favorable, according to the district office of the Federal Housing administration, which stated that August missed by only a narrow margin becoming the banner month of the year.

Co. No. 4 Holds Annual Barbecue

Company No. 4, D. C. F. D., held their annual barbecue and outing at McNear's beach in Marin county last Sunday. After inspection of the grounds, a few games of barn-yard golf and swimming, members had developed a hearty appetite for the barbecued steak and trimmings.

Following lunch a soft-ball game between Co. No. 4 and Co. No. 3, who were also there, resulted in a draw. With more swimming and wading and barbecued hot dogs with coffee and cakes, the day drew to a successful close.

Youngest guest of the company was Daniel P. Curtin, who was honored with a "happy birthday" song and a large cake with one candle, baked by his grandmother.

Others present included Chief Andrew P. Chesney and Mrs. Chesney; Assistant Chief Arthur Bodien and Mrs. Bodien, Captain A. Sundstrom, Mrs. Sundstrom, and Junior and Rosemarie; Lieutenant W. Davis, Mrs. Davis and Ronnie; Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hilton, Mr. and Mrs. F. Mather, Mr. and Mrs. A. Vireno, Mr. and Mrs. N. Foppiano, Mr. and Mrs. G. Augustien, Mr. and Mrs. H. Sundermann jr., Vic Fenstermacher, Jeff Lee.

UNITED STATES ARMY OUTLINES OPPORTUNITY OPEN TO RECRUITS

Leslie... ...ge Co.—From Painting by James Montgomery Flagg

Health, Education Stressed For Soldiers

In addition to the knowledge that I am training to defend American democracy from totalitarian powers if need arises, what else does life in the United States army offer me?

This question, which any young man might ask himself, is amply answered by information released from the United States army recruiting office at 32 Federal Office building in San Francisco.

HEALTH comes first, according to army officials. The outdoor life, bracing drills, wholesome food and regular hours induce this blessing. Every Army post has its athletic teams and every soldier is encouraged to turn out for sports.

TRAVEL AND ADVENTURE are open to every man in military service. Troops are stationed in the Panama Canal Zone, Hawaii, the Philippines and Alaska.

PAY AND GRADES range from $21 to $157.50 a month. Good men can expect to receive promotion and increased pay. In addition to his salary the soldier is paid an increase of 5 per cent of his base pay for each four years' service up to 25 per cent for over 20 years service. In addition to a cash consideration, Uncle Sam furnishes clothing, food,, housing and medical and dental treatment free of charge.

EDUCATION is stressed. The army conducts a variety of schools in which clerical, mechanical and scientific subjects are taught. A large number of qualified soldiers, therefore, have an opportunity to learn trades, a knowledge of which may later prove of value to them in civilian pursuits. Much of the Army is motorized, and men are needed to run the motors. There are excellent schools to train radio operators, motor mechanics and the various specialists for the Air Corps.

ADVANCEMENT rests entirely with the soldier himself. It is the same in the Army as in civil life in this respect. Each man has abundant opportunity to make good, as one of the principal objectives of army training is to develop individual initiative and qualities of leadership. After thirty years' service in the army, soldiers are retired on three-quarters pay, plus allowances of $15.75 a month. Retired pay including allowances, varies from $35.44 to $133.87 a month, depending upon the grade reached.

The American soldier is smartly clothed and equipped. Organization commanders are very liberal in the granting of passes and furloughs. An honorable discharge from the regular army after at least one year of continuous service makes it possible for those returning to civil life to remain with the colors and become model "minute men" by enlisting in the regular army reserves.

Applicants for enlistment in the U. S. army must have the following qualifications.

a. Limiting age for original enlistment—21 to 35 years.

b. If under 21 years of age they must have consent of their parents or guardian.

c. Must be at least 5 feet 4 inches in height.

d. Minimum allowable weight 115 pounds.

e. A good moral character, certified to by a reputable citizen.

f. Must be of sound health and free from any organic disease.

g. Applicants must have

The Grand Aerie emphasized that the building of war machines was not enough; that the country's armed forces must be augmented to such a degree that experienced operators of such war machines would be available immediately in any emergency.

This position was made public today by Conrad H. Mann, auditor of the immense order. T h e Eagles are a mutual benefit paying group consisting of more than 650,000 members located in better than 1200 industrial and commercial centers in the United States, Canada, and the territorial possessions. President Roosevelt is a long-time member of the order, having joined Buffalo Aerie No. 46 many years ago.

In addition, Mann stated, every member of the order who might be conscripted or who might join any branch of the armed forces of the United States, would be carried as a beneficial member on the roster of the subordinate unit to which he belonged at the time of conscription or enlistment without having to pay the usual monthly dues.

During the World War of 1917-18 the order established a "Patriotic Fund" of better than a million and a quarter dollars. The nearest dependent relative of every member in the country's armed forces was paid a gratuity of $1,000, provided the member was killed in action or died of wounds or illness incurred as a result of his war-time services.

Who? What? Where Is A Marine?

In a recent check-up, it was found that half of the original enlistments in the United States Marine corps are of young men from 18 to 21, according to Lieutenant-Colonel R. W. Peard, of the Marine Corps Recruiting station, ... Francisco.

National Defense

Preparedness for national defense is a vital element of our national security. Our potential military strength, material resources and productive capacity cannot, in themselves, withstand the lightning thrusts of modern military forces.

We need the military strength now, in the most modern sense, of our naval, air and land forces, ready for immediate action and capable of great and rapid expansion, which will keep war away from our shores if possible, and crush invasion if necessary.

The existence of a strong force ready for immediate action is the very core of our system of national defense. That force consists of the Regular Army and the National Guard. The Regular Army is the component of that force composed of men whose full time is devoted to our defense.

Our small regular army must provide the garrisons for our outposts in Puerto Rico, Panama, Hawaii and Alaska, man our seacoast guns, and with the National Guard, provide the mobile forces to release the navy for distant operations and for our immediate security.

93,000 NEW MEN

In order that our Regular Army may more fully meet these demands, its authorized strength has been increased to 375,000 men. The U. S. Army Recruiting Service is engaged in a campaign to secure the men needed for this expansion. The objective of 93,000 new men to be reached by September will require intensive effort. The need for enlistment is now. The necessity for the rapid realization of this program cannot be overemphasized.

The attainment of this objective will give us nine fast-moving divisions of great fire power, well adapted to modern warfare, one cavalry division and two mechanized and motorized divisions.

Untrained troops, however great may be their personal courage as individuals, cannot successfully cope with the onslaught of veteran soldiers. This is particularly true today, in this age of mechanized, motorized and armored forces.

MANY BENEFITS

The young man who makes patriotic response to the call of his country will be well rewarded by the present and accrued benefits of service in the Regular Army. He finds himself amid healthful surroundings and with congenial companions. He is well fed, clothed, comfortably housed and cared for by army doctors if he is sick. He finds opportunity for recreation and athletic sports. All this is provided by a government which takes keen interest in his physical well being. Opportunity is offered for travel to our stations in Puerto Rico, Panama, Hawaii and Alaska.

In our modern army large numbers of trained men are needed in the motor transport, communication, aviation and other fields for the operation and maintenance of diversified and sometimes complex equipment. The ambitious soldier can learn a good trade in any of these lines and get paid while doing it. When he becomes qualified he may be given a specialist rating carrying with it additional pay from $3.00 to $30.00 monthly depending upon his specific occupation. The army maintains training schools in every branch to ensure an adequate number of such trained men.

GREAT TRAINING SCHOOL

The army is a great training school. It teaches the principles of obedience and loyalty to constituted authority, patriotism and service of country. Fundamental deficiencies of education are corrected, technical training is given, and finally soldiers are made, soldiers in whom service of country comes first, last and always.

Our young soldier enlists for a period of three years, and is paid at the rate of $21.00 monthly. That is his spending money. Few young men in civil life have as much as that in their first employment. Loyal and faithful service results very soon in his advancement to the grade of Private First Class at $30.00 monthly. Promotion awaits the soldier who shows more than the ordinary ability, loyalty and sense of responsibility to duty. A Corporal is paid $42.00 monthly, a Sergeant $54.00 and so on through the grades to that of Master Sergeant with pay of $126.00 monthly. Every four years of continuous service an increase of 5% is automatic up to the maximum limit of 25% for longevity pay as it is called.

After 30 years total service our old soldier may retire on a lifetime pension of three-fourths of his last pay monthly plus $15.75 in lieu of allowances.

The Army is looking for young unmarried male citizens of the United States between the ages of 18 and 35 years, of good character and without dependents. Boys under 21 years of age must have the written consent of their parents or legal guardians to qualify for enlistment. Felons, illiterates and physical weaklings are not wanted.

The numerous vacancies under the expansion program give a wide latitude of choice in assignments for applicants both as to arms and services and geographical location.

YOUNG MAN, COME JOIN

Young man, come join the army. Your country wants you in its hour of need.

Service in the armed forces of your country is the supreme expression of patriotism.

"One Million B. C." Opens Tomorrow At Local Theatre

With a cast headed by Victor Mature, Lon Chaney jr., and Carole Landis, Hal Roach's great spectacle film drama of prehistoric times, "One Million B. C.," will have a gala premiere at the Daly City theatre tomorrow.

The production, one of the most ambitious to come from the Roach Studios to date, was both produced and directed by Roach personally, with Hal Roach jr., collaborating.

The story centers about the Shell People and the Rock Tribe, two peoples who may be described as cavemen in the days when huge dinosaurs roamed the earth. The Shell People are less savage and more advanced than the Rock Tribe. A volcano and an earthquake bring disaster and desolation to the land of the Rock Tribe and later a gargantuan dinosaur attacks the cave of the Shell People. These dangers eventually unite the two hostile tribes and together they undertake to build a new civilization on a peaceful basis.

For ten days the company making the picture was on location in Fire Valley, Nevada, an isolated valley of rugged, red sandstone, about as prehistoric a spot as can be found anywhere in America. But it was back in the studio, where scenes with an atmosphere, sometimes grotesque and eerie, suggesting the early days of the earth, were photographed.

Here, under the direction of Nicolai Remisoff, sets that go the real thing one better were created. They covered four stages. Huge slabs of synthetic sandstone, caves, pools of water with plants of forgotten worlds hanging over them, festooned with draperies of moss, vistas of distant, purpling rocks—these were achieved under the magic hand of Remisoff.

One of the strangest and most interesting sets represented a lush primeval oasis when the world was young, and it was dubbed "The Garden of Eden" by the cast during filming. The tropical profusion of the setting almost overshadowed the actors. Since no one could say exactly what the world looked like a million years ago, the studio let its imagination run riot. Thus, on this set, tree ferns, ten feet high, imported from Australia, are seen to bend grotesquely against gnarled trees with roots half-way up their trunks; dates grow upwards on transformed sycamore trees, and huge Abyssinian banana trees, giant South American stagehorn ferns and exotic fruits from Africa grow in wild abandon, with little regard for accepted zoology.

Companion feature will be "We Who Are Young," with Lana Turner and John Shelton.

PRIMITIVE TRAVELERS

Victor Mature and Carole Landis travel through a dangerous wilderness to the cave of the Rock Tribe, the savage clan, which is vividly pictured in Hal Roach's "One Million B. C.," the spectacle of prehistoric times, which will open at the Daly City theatre tomorrow.

Wild Boars

Most of the Russian wild boars enumerated by game census-takers in America are in Graham county, North Carolina. They were imported by an Englishman who planned a game preserve.

France Has Most Castles

According to a census just completed France has more castles than any other country in the world—a total of 761. Most of them are in the Touraine district.

WPA Decrease Indicates Employment Gains

Sharp employment increases in San Mateo county during the past eight months were indicated today by a report from the county WPA office.

A decrease of twenty-two per cent in the number of men on WPA rolls since the first of the year was claimed by the release. From 823 WPA workers on January 1, the roll has fallen to 637 on August 31. The reduction embraces all classes of project workers as well as those in supervisory capacities.

Fire-Fighters Awards

Medals for heroism in fighting forest fires are awarded by the American Forest Fire foundation.

Brownies Invite New Members

An invitation to all little girls between the ages of 7 and 10 years to join the Brownies was issued today by Mrs. Frances Leach, 67 Miriam street.

"We invite any little girl who wishes to attend any of our next three meetings," Mrs. Leach said today. "The Brownies meet at 2:45 p. m. every Thursday at Legion hall, 474 San Diego avenue."

Mrs. Leach explained that vacancies in the Brownie Pack will be created next Thursday afternoon when six of the present members will graduate into Girl Scouts at a special flying-up ceremony.

At the present time Brownies are working on Christmas gifts and other forms of handicraft, Mrs. Leach said. There are approximately 25 members in the group.

Honest Englishman

It's better late than never, reasoned Jesse Wallace, as he walked into a London, England, police station and handed a pair of old-fashioned gold-rimmed spectacles to the desk sergeant. "I found them when I was down here on my honeymoon 25 years ago," he explained, "and the matter slipped my mind until I got home. I decided to turn them over to police on my next visit to London, and this is it."

Coastside Parish To Hold Benefit Whist

Catholics of Rockaway Beach, Sharp Park and Pedro Valley are preparing to give a whist party to raise funds for completion of the installation of pews in the Catholic church in Rockaway Beach.

The party will be held at 8:30 p. m., October 4, in Colma. Place will be the parish hall on San Pedro avenue. In addition to whist, there will be several other games so that everyone may be entertained.

The committee in charge is working very hard on the plans, according to officials, and everyone is assured a good time. The public is cordially invited.

TO THE PUBLIC:

Our defense requires at the earliest possible moment the combined power of our naval, air and land forces which will keep war away from our shores if possible, and crush invasion if necessary.

Our initial forces provide for our immediate security and support our Navy. The Regular Army is the component of those forces composed of men whose full time is devoted to our defense.

The immediate expansion of our Regular Army is imperative. A strong force ready for immediate action is the very core of our system of national defense.

The cooperation of all patriotic citizens is needed to accomplish this expansion.

Daly City Is Doing Its Part In The National Defense Program

We Are Interested In You—Young Man

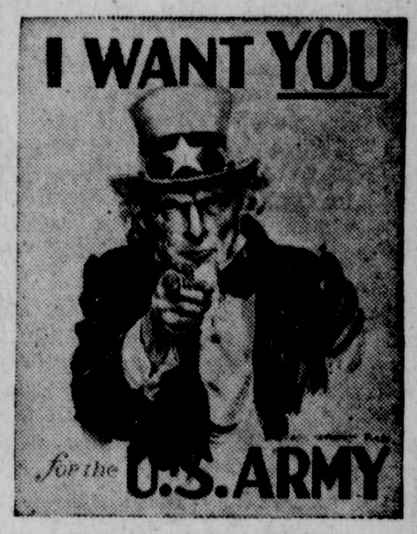

We, the members of the Daly City Board of Councilmen, are vitally interested in the development of Daly City's young men.

To all single unemployed young men—and to men who are employed, but who can arrange to secure a leave of absence from their jobs—we urgently recommend that you investigate the opportunities for service to your country and personal development for yourself now being offered in the United States Army.

Many Benefits In The Army

The young man who makes patriotic response to the call of his country will be well rewarded by the present and accrued benefits of service in the Regular Army. He finds himself amid healthful surroundings and with congenial companions. He is well fed, clothed, comfortably housed and cared for by army doctors if he is sick. He finds opportunity for recreation and athletic sports. All this is provided by a government which takes keen interest in his physical well being. Opportunity is offered for travel to our stations in Puerto Rico, Panama, Hawaii and Alaska.

In our modern army large numbers of trained men are needed in the motor transport, communication, aviation and other fields for the operation and maintenance of diversified and sometimes complex equipment. The ambitious soldier can learn a good trade in any of these lines and get paid while doing it. When he becomes qualified he may be given a specialist rating carrying with it additional pay from $3.00 to $30.00 monthly depending upon his specific occupation. The army maintains training schools in every branch to ensure an adequate number of such trained men.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR ENLISTMENT

Generally speaking, in order to obtain enlistment in the Regular Army, applicants must meet the following requirements:

They must be between the ages of 18 and 35 for original enlistment, unmarried, without other dependents, and those under 21 must have the written consent of parents or guardians; they must be at least 5 feet, 4 inches in height, and weigh not less than 115 pounds; they must be of good moral character as evidenced by written testimonials from reputable citizens of their respective communities; they must be in good health and free from incapacitating or disfiguring deformities; they must be citizens of the United States by birth or naturalization at the time of enlistment; they must be able to pass the intelligence and literacy tests prescribed in regulations governing recruiting for the Regular Army.

Pay and Allowances, All Branches (Active Duty)

Monthly rates of pay for the several grades as prescribed by law at present are as follows:

Master Sergeant	$126.00 to $157.50
Technical Sergeant	84.00 to 105.00
Staff Sergeant	72.00 to 90.00
Sergeant	54.00 to 67.50
Corporal	42.00 to 52.50
Private, First Class	30.00 to 37.50
Private	21.00 to 26.25

The first figure given in each instance above is the pay of the grade during the first four years of service. This amount is increased by five per cent every four years, until a total of twenty-five per cent has been added. In addition to the foregoing, numerous specialists ratings are provided for privates and privates, first class, whereby their pay is materially increased. The pay for these ratings ranges in amounts from $3 to $30 per month. This specialist pay is, of course, in addition to the pay for the grade held. A private, first class, for instance, who has less than four years service, would receive total pay of $60 per month if he also held a first class specialist rating.

Members of the Regular Army Reserve, regardless of grade, receive a yearly enlistment allowance of $24.

Retired Pay (Maximum Rates)

Master Sergeant	$133.87
First or Technical Sergeant	94.50
Staff Sergeant	83.25
Sergeant	66.37
Corporal	55.12
Private, First Class	43.87
Private	35.44

Aviation As Your Career

How would you like to become a U. S. Army trained aviator? The best aviation training in the world is now available at Government expense to a selected group of qualified young citizens as U. S. Army Flying Cadets.

Army flying training prepares a young man for a career in aviation, and while he is undergoing that training he receives pay at the rate of $75.00 per month, uniforms, dental and medical attention, and board and lodging. He actually earns while he learns. Comparable training is not obtainable elsewhere. The best full-course training available in civilian schools costs from $2000 to $4000 and up for tuition alone.

Upon graduation as a flying cadet, the graduate is tendered a commission as a second lieutenant in the U. S. Army Air Reserve and becomes eligible for three years of active duty with the Regular Army Air Corps under his reserve commission, with the same pay and allowances as an officer of the same grade and length of service on flying duty in the Regular Army at a minimum total monthly rate of $205.50, when assigned to Government quarters, or $265.50 per month when not assigned to Government quarters.

If you have not already done so, the War Department recommends strongly that you complete your collegiate training. However, in case you are prevented from continuing your studies, successful completion of at least one-half of the necessary credits leading to a degree exempts you from the educational examination for appointment as a flying cadet.

Eight Students Play In D. C. Band

Eight Jefferson Union high school students are gaining practical musical experience by playing with the Daly City Municipal band this year, according to Oscar J. Busch, high school music instructor.

"The Daly City Band is a very fine place for high school students who know something about playing a band instrument to get some further experience," Busch said today. "It also is important in developing a sense of community pride and responsibility in students."

Six of the students now appearing with the band did their first work on an instrument only last year, Busch stated, and all are continuing their work with the Jefferson Union high school band this year.

Daly City Band meets for rehearsal at 8 p. m. every Tuesday at the No. 1 firehouse, 188 Santa Barbara avenue.

Appearing in the free municipal band concert September 26 in the high school auditorium will be the following student members:

Ernest Anderson, trombone; Tom Beeson, trumpet; Tom Coverdale, trumpet; Charles May, bass; George Schmaltz, saxophone; Bob Seiler, trumpet; Sam Van Lieu, clarinet; and Norman Wiseman, clarinet.

Archery Practice Under Way At Jeff.

Archery practice for boys is now under way at Jefferson Union high school. Practice is held Wednesday, Thursday and Friday each week under supervision of Miss Ella Redkey, assisted by Ed High, WPA Recreation department leader.

Participants in the boys' division are now shooting 20 to 30 yards but before tournament time they will have increased their distances to 40 and 50 yards.

Increases in archery equipment have been made at the high school with the purchase of new 24, 25 and 26 inch arrows. Bows ranging from 19 pounds to 45 pounds are used. Boys use the bows above 35 pounds and girls use bows ranging from 20 to 24 pounds. Boys and girls of average height and build use the 26 inch arrows, while smaller participants shoot with 24 or 25 inch arrows.

The boys' tournament will be held in the Spring of 1941. Girls usually do not hold a tournament, but may plan one this year.

Last year the Freshmen won the boys' tournament. First place was taken by Bill Wright, freshman, who shot 90, hit 81, missed 9, got 20 goals, total score, 552; second place, Jack Van Kirk, freshman, who shot 90, hit 85, missed 5, made 14 goals and scored 454. Other students who came in close were Leonard Davis, scoring 376; Lowell Coy, 362 and Dave Johnson, 349.

Freshmen who were given numeral awards last semester include: Bill Wright, Jack Van Kirk, Lowell Coy, Dave Johnson and Albert Olivieri.

Girl archery enthusiasts meet Mondays, Tuesdays and Fridays. Viola Pisani is manager.

receive one or more promotions to higher grades.

There are marines down in Cuba, the Canal Zone, Hawaii, the Philippines, China, Guam, Alaska. No marine ever seems to stay in one place long enough to get rusty, and when on duty in the States, he may be stationed at any number of interesting places on both coasts, the report showed.

Information as to enlistment advantages may be obtained from Marine Corps Recruiting stations, located at 46 Federal Office building, San Francisco, and in post office buildings in Oakland, San Jose, Stockton and Sacramento.

HAIL! HAIL! the gang will all be there! Where? The dance, of course!

Yes, sir! The committee is very busy getting out the leis, and grass skirts to make this dance a success.

When talking to Betty Cohen about the dance, she said that she is anticipating a large crowd and wants to see everybody turn out. As you know, Betty is the entertainment chairman for this semester and this is her first dance. From all of the plans being made it's going to make history.

The theme of the evening will be a "Night in Hawaii." The auditorium will be dressed up in its best grass skirt and the rhythmic tunes of Lembi's "Indians of Rhythm" will provide the music. For a good time and a perfect evening put a little check in your date book for October 11, the date of the gala event.

C S F

The regular meeting of CSF Wednesday, was called to order by Howard Verrier and the minutes were read and approved. The plans for the convention were discussed and were near completion at the close of the meeting.

Verrier commented on the large number of students attending. This is due to the new rule that was put into effect last meeting. Anyone that is absent three times during the semester without an acceptable excuse automatically forfeits their privilege to attend the meetings. The committee chairman in charge of the attendance is Robert Grimes.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 3:30 p. m..

Music

Are you ready, Hessie? —

So went the Cowboy band as they began their practice for the big event at the Fair on CSF day. Everything from straw hats to washboards will complete the outfits of the cowboys.

The band won a lot of recognition last semester, when they made several appearances at the Daly City theatre and at numerous other public events. The band will be composed of the same students, except for the loss of one player, Al Marcucci, who doesn't attend Jefferson any more.

Josephine Puricelli brought credit to the Indians of Rhythm upon being asked to sing with the Daly City Band in the concerts they are planning to present in the near future. Josephine has been singing with the Indians of Rhythm for several semesters and has received many comments upon her splendid voice.

Tomorrow the assembly will ring with the music of the Indians of Rhythm as they put on their first assembly of the semester. The money received from this program will go into a picture fund for the purpose of securing higher-grade films when the occasion arises.

The new talent to be presented will include: Daisy Yonan, Harlan Ferrando, Lois Baker and Mary Sue Denton. These students tried out with Lembi last week and were chosen for their personality and splendid voices.

Sports

From pigskins to tennis rackets, so begins this week's sport review as Reuben Krogh with his candidates for the tennis team went out Friday for tryouts. The boys swung mean rackets and competition was stiff. The playoff resulted in the following boys being chosen for team positions: Charles Razzari came in first; Jack Hickey, second; Leonard Sorg, third; Norman Wiseman, fourth; Bernard Janssen, fifth; Bob Spark, sixth; Eddie Zugar, seventh; Lloyd Rentsch, eighth. Other boys who came in close were: S. Van Lieu, Angelo Ditty, Sirafino Ragni, Harvey Melicker, and Bob Sick.

Matches are being scheduled for a seven-man team, with three singles and two doubles.

G P A L

For smooth and even strokes many of the mermaids can be seen swimming to the tunes of famous orchestras as they practice after school. Miss Juanita Young, their instructor, stated that by having them swim to the count of the music that an even stroke can be kept by the whole team at once. The swimmers have also been having land exercises preceding the swimming instruction.

The report given on the archery and softball have all been toward the best and it looks like the girls are really going in for sports this semester.

Campus Fashions

Corduroy seems to be the height of fashion this month, according to all the fashion experts. Your little reporter was busy window shopping the other day and came across some of the cutest outfits. The one that caught my eye was a darling! It was made of cool honey-blond corduroy, (which, by the way, is quite flattering to your newly-acquired sun tan). The dress was charmingly trimmed with a studded cowboy belt and a speedy zipper down the front.

Not only do these good-looking corduroys come in dresses, but they also come in elegant looking suits and jumpers that are just suited for school dances and parties.

Extra smart . . . is the herringbone tweed coat, with the pockets about as large as mail bags, and gloves that take the appearance of boxing gloves. These so-called "sock-em" gloves are the newest word in sport wear, and are made of capeskin.

Jimmy Fidler would have given four bells to the lovely picture made by two cute campus lassies as they traipsed down the hall. You would have had to look again for fear that you were seeing double. But no—they really were dressed exactly alike, in striking red and white jumpers. The jumpers were of red cotton material with white stripes and white buttons down the back completed their chic outfits. With white shirts, red socks and white shoes the outfits were matched to a "T." The girls were about the same height and had the same color hair. They made the cutest fashion-twins. So along with the "four bells," a fashion bouquet is given this week's smartest colleens—Misses Mary Picchi and Lillian Gianecchini.

Student Government

Yesterday at 8 a. m. the regular meeting of the executive board was called to order with President Bill Rigler presiding.

The minutes were read and approved as corrected, and then Rigler brought up the old business of the date for the end of Student Body Card sale. Rigler suggested that it be closed the second Tuesday in October. The cards will still be on sale after that date, but the price will be raised. This suggestion was approved by the board.

Under new business, Rigler called off the names of the students who will help with the ticket sale for the Assembly tomorrow. Members of the board who were chosen are Herb Poddig, Bob Capps, Barbara Foreman, Bud Przyborowski, and Norma Barker. They were urged by the president to encourage the sale of the tickets because when more students attend the assembly, better pictures can be purchased in the future.

The Daly City Theatre manager gave Rigler coupons to give the students so they may procure the dictionary that the theatre is offering.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 8:10 a. m.

ASSEMBLY

Last Tuesday Waldo Marra from the Bank of America gave a very interesting talk on letters. Stanley Weigel, San Francisco attorney, spoke to the students on Constitution Day. Two other interesting speakers who will probably be heard by the students this week include Francis J. Roberson, probation officer of San Mateo county, and Edward F. Moore from the AAA on "Safety."

"Streets Of Gold?"—

Chamber of commerce claims that the streets of Burlingame are paved with gold came close to being true last Monday.

Eighty dollars in pennies—8,000 coins—were scattered for nearly two blocks when a car door swung open and dumped two sacks of money on the highway. Traffic was blocked for half a mile as passing motorists stopped to help shovel the coins back into the arms of the coin vending machine collector.

The victim, however, happily estimated that his street collections, made by brooms, buckets and what have you, had amounted to "about 98 per cent."
